Hey Matt,

Do you mind sending me the most updated version of the Florida crosswalk? The version that I have has some OGC comments in the margins that I'd rather not share if a cleaner version exists.

Thanks for the help.

Matt

Hi Matt – I am checking in to see whether you had the chance to inquire with Florida on whether their crosswalk could be shared.

Thanks for your help.

Hi Matt,

I am following up on a voicemail that I left for you yesterday. I understand that you are one of the attorneys assigned to Florida's efforts to assume the CWA 404 program. I am just starting to work on similar efforts in the state of Oregon, and OGC forwarded Florida's crosswalk as an example. I hope to speak with you about Florida's crosswalk, specifically whether you found it helpful and whether you (or Florida) would be opposed to sharing it with Oregon. I would appreciate the opportunity to learn from your experience when you have the chance.

Looking forward to talking soon,

Matt Moore
